CONTEMPLATIVE SCRIPTURAL RETREAT

with Jude Siciliano, OP and Patricia Bruno, OP

The Psalms have been called poetic prayers. They draw their power from a range of human emotions: awe, praise, complaint, thanksgiving, repentance. We will bring ourselves and our world to the Psalms this week and let these poetic prayers speak to our hearts. And we will listen! We will also draw on contemporary poems to help us bridge the gap between the ancient world of the Psalms and our own. If you like, you might bring a favorite poem with you that has uplifted your spirit or spoken a truth to you.

Patricia Bruno Fr. Jude and Sr. Patricia travel throughout the United States presenting parish retreats. As a preaching team, they have taught the art of preaching and are each actively engaged in the work of their own communities, Sr Patricia as a member of the Dominican Sisters of San Rafael, and Fr. Jude as a member of the Southern Province of the Dominican Friars. They bring a wealth of preaching and teaching experience to their retreat work and are gifted in leading groups and reflection and ritual.
