SCANNING THE SIGNS OF THE TIMES

FRENCH DOMINICANS IN THE TWENTIETH CENTURY

US$27

(this is 10% off to CTSA members till 30 June 2013)

The theological and cultural vigor of these seven French Dominicans—Sertillanges, Chenu, Congar, Lebreton, Loew, Liégé, and Couturier—eventually influenced the entire church through the breakthrough of Vatican II. They read the signs of the times and saw what the Holy Spirit was doing in a changing world. The Catholic Church is more alive because of them.

'This is a deeply refreshing book about seven Dominicans who fearlessly brought their faith into dialogue with different aspects of modernity. It captures their joy, freedom, courage, and their profound evangelical hope in the face of fear and hostility. I could not put it down. It captures them perfectly.'

Timothy Radcliffe, OP

Former Dominican Master General

Author of Take the Plunge: Living Baptism and Confirmation

Thomas F O'Meara, OP, is the William K Warren Professor of Theology Emeritus at the University of Notre Dame. He is the author of many books.

Paul Philibert, OP, is Promoter of Permanent Formation for the Southern Dominican Province in the USA. He is a retired professor of pastoral theology.

Jean-Pierre Jossua, OP, is the biographer of Yves Congar and a highly celebrated author of books touching theology and culture. He lives in Paris.
